

California State Senator Lou Correa

and the Senate Select Committee on Autism & Related Disorders invite you to attend an informational hearing on

Entrepreneurial Philanthropy: An Important Model for Autism Research and Treatment in the 21st Century

Wednesday, November 13, 2013
10:00 – 11:45 am

The Center for Autism & Neurodevelopmental Disorders
2500 Red Hill Avenue, Santa Ana

PROGRAM WILL INCLUDE

- ▶ Overview of challenges & opportunities that currently exist in academia with regards to autism research and treatment.
- ▶ Overview of how modern research endeavors and technological applications may be utilized to promote future advancements in research, treatment, and public-private partnerships.

For more information or to RSVP, contact Jeanne Tran at 714.558.4400 or JEANNE.TRAN@SEN.CA.GOV.